INVITATION

---

Dear Industry Colleagues,

On behalf of Amy Luckenbaugh, MD, FACS, Scientific Program Chair and David Penson Chairman of the Department of Urology Vanderbilt University, we invite your support and participation at the upcoming 53rd Annual Meeting of the Vanderbilt Urology Society. It will take place on September 29-30, 2025 at the Holiday Inn & Suites Nashville Downtown Broadway.

The Rhamy-Shelley meeting is a longstanding Vanderbilt tradition, honoring two individuals, both instrumental in the development of the Department of Urology. Combining a visiting professorship with a resident alumni reunion and state-of-the-art CME presentations by Vanderbilt faculty makes this a unique program attracting community urologists, as well as alumni from all over the country.

The meeting will include a networking reception on September 29th for our attendees. We anticipate roughly 100 participants at this meeting, urologists will attend from all over the country, giving you a unique opportunity to interact with these clinicians that you would normally only get at a chance to meet at a national meeting like the AUA.

Vanderbilt is unquestionably one of the finest urology programs in the country; you will not want to miss this meeting! Industry Partners and technical exhibits are an important part of our meeting's success, providing added value to attendees by giving our participants the opportunity to stay up to date on the latest product and disease state information in the field. To ensure ample time for networking, meals and refreshment breaks will be held in the exhibit hall.

Thank you for your consideration of our request for participation; we look forward to receiving your commitment. If you have any questions, please contact Tyler Gillespie, Tgillespie@veritasamc.com.

See you in Nashville!

Kind Regards,

Tyler Gillespie
